In order to clarify your options and responsibilities, we have prepared the following STATEMENT OF POLICY. Please read it carefully. We will be happy to discuss it with you if you have any questions or concerns.

Each class is held at a regular recurring day and time at Spotlight Studios for the Performing Arts (unless otherwise specified). Our classes are sized in a way that will provide opportunities for individualized instruction and group activities. Please realize that by filling an established class space, you are assuming the responsibility to pay for that time, whether you attend class or miss for any reason. The only exception is when severe weather conditions prohibit safe travel. In this instance, you will be contacted for all class closures.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above statement.
